ABSTRACT:

PROBLEM TO BE SOLVED: To make it possible to efficiently perform business associated with a financial transaction.

SOLUTION: Written agreement data acquired by reading a written agreement with a OCR at a person responsible terminal 14a, after being confirmed to meet financial conditions, are recorded in a loan booking reservation database 18 (S100 to S120). At a reviewer terminal 14b, loan data recorded in the loan booking reservation database 18 are read and a reviewing operation is performed (S130 to S140). The loan data for which the reviewing operation has been performed, after being confirmed to meet the financial conditions, are recorded in a loan booking database 22, so that a transaction associated with the loan data is executed (S142 to S146). In addition, the loan data recorded in the loan booking database 22 are transmitted (S150) to the reviewer terminal 14b or the like.
